

Landings Art Association

21st Annual Spring Art Show May 1st –May 8th 2008

Excitement and anticipation filled the air in the lobby of Merrill Lynch on May 1st as a record crowd of more than 200 gathered to hear Holly Koons McCullough, Chief Curator of Art and Exhibition at the Telfair Academy, announce the winners of the 21st Annual Spring Show.

And The Winners Are:

Best of Show	Lind Hollingsworth	“Road Trip to Paradise”	Collage, Paint, Found Objects
First Place	Eva Bulman	“Shadowplay”	Photography
Second Place	Babette Borsani	“Washed Ashore 1”	Beaded Necklace, Freeform
Third Place	Dave Walton	“Nantucket Basket”	Purse With Wood Inlay

Honorable Mentions

Alan Boyce	“Boarding Time”	Wood Carvings, Noah’s Ark
Margaret Brennan	“Savannah”	Photography
Sally Clark	“To Paris With Love	Mixed Media
Billie Collins	“Time Capsule #1	Clay, Lidded Vessel
Lynne Daley	“Copper Bowl Still Life”	Photography
Marjorie Dessauer	“Sephonia”	Pastel
Marilyn Foley	“Stairway, Fountains Abbey	Watercolor
Tonnie Glick	“Fourth of July fireworks”	Beading
Brooke Robinson	“Inspiration”	Watercolor
Martha Sanders	“Portrait of Margaret”	Oil

In addition to the winning ribbons, Holly attached to each a piece a short description about the elements that caught her attention. She ended her speech with these words:

“Judging is very subjective and I would like you all to know that I was impressed with the quality and number of pieces in this show.”

And with those words, every one of the 125 entries became a winner!
Thanks to all who helped make the 21st Spring Art Show a success. See you next year!

Grace Rohland x8217